Dear Sir:

I have looked through your list of decorations but, as you probably know, we are not interested in any of them. I understand that the Numismatic League, Box 66, South Orange, N. J. are buying orders and decorations. They have a rich collector who is getting together everything he can lay hands on. I know nothing about them, except that they recently bought a very large collection. I would advise you to send them a list with the price that you want and state you will sell for cash on delivery.

Very truly yours,

HW:JG
